Conscious Waiting

Quiet morning in Preparation for Advent

Saturday 22 November 2025

10am – 2pm (including lunch)

Creating a space in our busy lives to consciously wait and become aware, so we can welcome Christ this Advent.

We will join together in a morning of meditation, lectio divina, and silent reflection.

The morning will end with lunch. Please bring some food to share with others. Tea and coffee provided.

Suggested donation of £10 to cover venue hire.

Venue: Faithspace, Redcliffe Methodist Church, Prewett Street, Bristol, BS1 6PB

WCCM Bristol & Bath Area

Getting here:

Faithspace
Redcliffe Methodist Church
Prewett Street
Bristol, BS1 6PB

Faithspace is an accessible venue close to Bristol Temple Meads and St Mary Redcliffe Church with good access by train, bus and with ample free parking.

The main entrance has a few steps, but there is step free access via the entrance (and carpark) to the left of the building.

By bus: There are bus stops close by on Redcliffe Hill which is a short walk away at the end of Prewett Street (serving 24, 43, 74, 75, 76, A1, M1, M2). Buses also stop at Temple Meads Station a 10 min walk away.

By train: The venue is a 10 min walk from Bristol Temple Meads Station. From Temple Gate turn left onto Redcliffe Way and then left again on Redcliffe Mead Lane which becomes Prewett Street. The venue is on the right-hand side.

By car: there is ample free parking to the rear of the venue. If you need step-free access use the spaces at the front of the building. Prewett Street is accessible via Redcliffe Hill or Redcliffe Way (turning first into Redcliffe Mead Lane).

To cover the costs of the venue, we suggest a donation of £10 for the morning if you are able. Just give what you can, all are welcome. Cash on the day preferred or contact Helen for other payment methods.

For booking and further information please contact Helen Adams, hradams@hotmail.co.uk or 07947 073250

Please indicate if you have accessibility needs or food allergies.
